

I strongly urge you to retain the current media ownership rules as they stand. This proposed vote will lead to more media consolidation. We, the public, want rules in place that serve the public, not private interests.